Police Chief:

- Chief, Lt. Pirtle met with the Principals from Caseyville and Hollywood Heights Grade School regarding safety changes. Superintendent also joined the meeting and thanked the Department for their involvement within the Community and cannot wait for the new Caseyville grade school. The Safety system will allow the Department access to the Unit 10 School system and provide Safety notices to all schools at one time if necessary or just 1 school.
- Held the St. Clair County Intelligence Meeting last week, had approximately 40 attendees from the County and State.
- Fishing Derby has been scheduled for Saturday, May 21, 2022.

Superintendent of Public Works:

- Planning/Zoning – Phil is working with 81st property to get annexed into Village and it would also change the Business District Boundaries.
- Tyson Foods – will start moving dirt late March, early April.
- Public Works – Looking into obtaining a Directional Boring Machine which would allow the Village to do 6” main/trenches underground and not tear-up driveways, sidewalks, etc. Had several employees attend the EPA License Spraying class today and take the necessary tests.
- Parks – Will place on Website Application for Park employees. Doing an inventory at the park on missing or broken items.

Attorney Kevin Kaufhold:

- Sent to all Board Members a memo outlining the Attorney Work Product. Another memo will be forthcoming in April with updated projects.

Adjournment:

A motion was made by John Buckley, seconded by Kent Luebbers to adjourn the meeting, and go into Committee.
