COMMITTEE MEETING MINUTES

September 16, 2026

Meeting called to order at 7:45 p.m.

COMMITTEE REPORT:

Administrative/Communications/Closed Minute Review:

- There seems to be some miscommunications on social media regarding spending on Police Vehicles. It stated we have spent $400,000 and spending for 2026 on Police Cars has been $199,760; but now we need to add in a lawsuit, which we hope to recoup some funds.

Annexation:

- None.

Emergency Management:

- None.

Finance/TIF/Grants/Insurance:

- None.

Ordinance:

- None.

Planning/Zoning:

- None.

Police/Fire:

- For general information we are looking into a Bodycam System that adds language translations (250 different languages). This is real-time, so if someone is speaking Spanish it immediately translates into English for the Officer.

Public Works/Building:

- Agenda – Tucker Drive Pump Station, Electric Control Panel and Service Upgrade. Proposal submitted by Wissehr Electrical Contractors for a cost of $55,960.00. This pump is currently underground and wants to move electrical to above ground emergency repair.
- Agenda – Brookside Pump Station, Electric Control Panel and Service Upgrade. Proposal submitted by Wissehr Electrical Contractors for a cost of $55,350.00. This pump is also underground and wants to move electrical to above ground emergency repair.
- For general information we need to purchase a 4" pump from Rain for Rent, Pontoon Beach at a cost of $24,120.23. This pump assists with bypassing. Under the purchasing price not requiring Board Approval.
- For general information a Tilt Trailer needs to be purchased. We have received three (3) quotes and will be purchasing from Edwards Equipment, Belleville, Illinois at a cost of $10,922.00. This trailer assists with carrying equipment. Under the purchasing price not requiring Board Approval.

Special Events:

- None.

Cemetery:

- None.

Mayor Luebbers – Is the Board interested in selling the Lion's Club. Prior to deciding, the seller needs to provide plans as to what they will do with this property.

Meeting adjourned at 7:52 p.m.
